

Sequencing

- Which one of these events happened after Yang's knees dug into the snow?
 - (A) Yang pulled out her trusty staff.
 - (B) The old man grabbed Yang's shoulder.
 - (C) Yang felt the gash on her face.
 - (D) The old man kissed Yang on her forehead.

Main Idea

- Which paragraph in the story is mainly about the struggling people of Yang's village?
 - (A) Paragraph one.
 - (B) The paragraph fourth from last.
 - (C) The fourth paragraph.
 - (D) Paragraphs four and seven.

Vocabulary Enrichment

- In the last paragraph, which word is used as an adjective to describe the old man's demeanor?
 - (A) Hero.
 - (B) Elder.
 - (C) Jubilant.
 - (D) Old.

Important Ideas

- What possibility regarding her people does Yang not want to consider?
 - (A) The villagers might freeze to death.
 - (B) The villagers could become cannibals.
 - (C) The villagers will likely banish her.
 - (D) The villagers might be disappointed in her.

Fact or Opinion?

- Of these statements about the passage, which is an absolute fact?
 - (A) Yang fought off the leopards successfully.
 - (B) Yang is lucky she didn't die.
 - (C) Animals should never eat their own kind.
 - (D) The old man was a coward to not help Yang.

Foreshadowing

- Which component of the story foretells that Yang will encounter the leopards?
 - (A) The old man smelling blood in the air.
 - (B) Yang placing her staff in her hands.
 - (C) The blizzard conditions of the forest.
 - (D) The villagers who await Yang's return.

Making Inferences

- Which of these ideas is likely true, even though it isn't stated directly in the story?
 - (A) Panda bear meat is Yang's favorite food.
 - (B) Yang was raised by snow leopards.
 - (C) The old man greatly dislikes Yang.
 - (D) Yang has hunted animals before.

Recalling Details

- What is the relationship between Yang and the old man by her side in the story?
 - (A) The old man is Yang's husband.
 - (B) The two are father and daughter.
 - (C) He is Yang's guide.
 - (D) Yang and the old man are rival hunters.

Exposition

- What background information in the story helps the reader understand Yang's motivation?
 - (A) The dire conditions of Yang's village.
 - (B) The habits of the snow leopards.
 - (C) The warning of Yang's parents.
 - (D) Yang's experiences as a child.

Cause & Effect

- What was responsible for Yang and the old man finding the animals in the winter forest?
 - (A) The old man's nose.
 - (B) Yang's determination.
 - (C) Sheer luck.
 - (D) A map of animal habitat locations.