

Review Quiz

1. You are compared to a professional boxer in paragraph 10. This is—

- Figurative Lang. (RL.4)
- a simile.
  - personification.
  - a metaphor.
  - hyperbole.

2. After reading the story, it wouldn't be logical to infer that—

- Inferencing (RL.1)
- you won't be in the employ of the Remote Transit Company much longer.
  - RTC does not train its delivery drivers thoroughly.
  - Mr. Haddock was secretly hoping the squid would attack you.
  - in all likelihood, your submarine would not have outran the squid.

3. In which of the manners listed are you and the squid similar?

- Compare/Cont. (RL.3)
- You both can travel underwater.
  - You both live in the ocean.
  - You both have wet, slimy skin.
  - You both have a boss whom you must obey.

4. What strategy do you devise to assist you in escaping the squid?

- Recalling Details (RL.1)
- Fire harpoons at the squid.
  - Spray the monster with squid stink.
  - Ram the squid with your submarine.
  - Release the shipment you're carrying so that you can go faster.

5. Which of these occurrences is the climactic event of the story?

- Story Climax (RL.2)
- You pressing the button with the cloud insignia to scare away the squid.
  - You calling Mr. Haddock for help.
  - You continuing on to make your delivery after losing the squid.
  - You lamenting that you might try to find a new job soon.

Review Quiz

6. Which of the following statements about your character is not purely factual?

- Fact or Opinion? (RL.1)
- A You are a submarine driver for the Remote Transit Company.
  - B You should not have been so significantly frightened by the squid.
  - C Your boss, Mr. Haddock, helped you escape from the squid.
  - D This was the first time you have ever before seen a squid.

7. You say “Phew” after the squid has disappeared. This is an example of—

- Figurative Lang. (RL.4)
- A personification.
  - B hyperbole.
  - C alliteration.
  - D onomatopoeia.

8. Of these terms, which is similar in meaning to insignia, as used in paragraph 9?

- Vocabulary (RL.4)
- A logo.
  - B symbol.
  - C emblem.
  - D all of the above.

9. Which piece of information is part of the story’s exposition?

- Exposition (RL.10)
- A You will start high school in the fall once your summer job is over.
  - B There is a touchscreen computer in your submarine.
  - C After encountering the squid, you expressed that you may want a new job.
  - D You went onward to deliver your cargo after the squid encounter.

10. The theme that makes the most sense for this fictional tale is:

- Theme (RL.2)
- A Sometimes high-paying jobs aren’t worth the compromises.
  - B Piloting a submarine is much more difficult than it seems to be.
  - C Don’t ever trust your boss. He or she is always out to ruin your reputation.
  - D No matter where you are, always be ready for a squid attack.