

Review Quiz

1. Red is to her mother, as a pizza delivery guy is to—

- Analogy (RL.10)
- A his customers.
 - B his boss.
 - C the pizza he delivers.
 - D his delivery vehicle.

2. What is the likeliest reason the author wrote this story?

- Author's Purpose (RL.6)
- A To entertain the reader.
 - B To persuade the reader that baked goods are addicting.
 - C To warn the reader that wolves are dangerous.
 - D To inform the reader about the joys of nature.

3. In paragraph three, Red furrows her brow. To furrow is to—

- Vocabulary (RL.4)
- A straighten.
 - B squeeze.
 - C shorten.
 - D wrinkle.

4. Why was your character hiking in the forest?

- Recalling Details (RL.1)
- A You were searching for something.
 - B You were following Red to see what she was doing.
 - C You were exploring the woods, as it's something you like to do.
 - D You were going to spend time in your secret tree house.

5. What does the story's illustration show that isn't mentioned in the text?

- Visualization (RL.7)
- A That Red carries a picnic basket.
 - B That Wolfer has fangs.
 - C That Red's hair is braided into pigtails.
 - D That money exchanged hands.

Review Quiz

6. All but one of these statements about you is false. Which one is true?

- True or False (RL.1)
- A You offered to sell Wolfer baked goods too.
 - B Your bad cough gave your hiding spot away.
 - C You knew who both Red and Wolfer were before seeing them in the forest.
 - D Your parents had forbidden you from hiking in the woods.

7. Which of these, if experienced, would help you better relate to this story?

- Prior Knowledge (RL.10)
- A Fishing in a lake.
 - B Hiking in the woods.
 - C Going to school.
 - D Escaping a forest fire.

8. Of these events from the story, which occurred second?

- Plot Order (RL.2)
- A Wolfer threatens you.
 - B You hide behind a tree.
 - C You ask for some of Red's pastries.
 - D Red demands more money.

9. If the story continued for another page, what would most likely happen next?

- Inferencing (RL.1)
- A Red would give Wolfer the food for which he paid.
 - B Wolfer would chase you down to give you some of the food he bought.
 - C You would try to snatch Red's picnic basket and run away.
 - D Red would help you find some aboobala plants.

10. That a wolf can talk in this story, is an example of—

- Figurative Lang. (RL.4)
- A irony (the amusing opposite of what is expected).
 - B personification (the giving of human qualities to that which isn't).
 - C symbolism (objects that represent something other than themselves).
 - D oxymoron (two opposite terms joined).